

REMARKS

Paragraph [0001] of the specification was amended by an Amendment filed on September 5, 2006. Paragraph [0001] is being further amended to correct a typographical error in the cited provisional application. Previously, priority was claimed to provisional application serial number 60/066,895, which was filed on November 25, 1997. The correct provisional application serial number is 60/066,589, which was filed on November 26, 1997.

This typographical error is obvious because the named inventors and the subject matter from the incorrectly designated 60/066,895 provisional application do not match the present application. The amendment does not add new matter and does not adversely affect the validity of the benefit of the filing date of the provisional application.

This amendment is being filed as a supplement to the Amendment mailed on October 5, 2007.

Respectfully submitted,

HAMILTON, BROOK, SMITH & REYNOLDS, P.C.
